ASCE/LOCATE Annual Transportation Conference

NEASCE and LOCATE invite you to participate in their 9th Annual Transportation Conference. The conference will be held at the Scott Conference Center in Omaha, NE on April 12th, 2013. We hope to continue our past success by providing interesting and informative presentations covering the topics of railroad, roadway, traffic and bridge engineering along with information on current events and issues affecting today's transportation engineer or planner. 6.0 Professional Development hours will be awarded for your participation in this year's conference.

Our planning committee consists of members from NDOR, City of Omaha, City of Lincoln, MAPA, University of Nebraska, NEASCE and LOCATE.

To register, go to <http://netranscon.eventbrite.com/#>.
